

LONGMONT LEDGER.

Community >>

Non-profit news

Firehouse Shines a Light on Domestic Violence

Through the Veil, an art exhibit benefiting the Longmont Ending Violence Initiative, will be on display at the Old Firehouse Art Center through Nov. 6.

The exhibit features the work of painter Theresa Anderson of Denver, including "The Temptation of St. Anthony," which focuses on the issue of domestic violence "through an autobiographical multi-media installation in which she works through personal identity damage and fracture," according to the art center.

"The Old Firehouse Art Center is honored to have the opportunity to shine a light on the stigma of domestic violence," said Art Director Paula Peacock.

For more information on the exhibit call 303-651-2787 or 303-774-4534 or visit www.firehouseart.org or longmontdomesticviolence.org.